

Please come and support a person who helps you out in YOUR time of need!

The Firefighter Marlon Sahai Fundraiser

On Sunday November 22nd the Sahai family had a devastating fire destroy their home and all of their possessions. Thankfully, no one was seriously injured and the family is temporarily residing in Ridgefield at a relative's house.

Marlon is a volunteer firefighter in his hometown of Ridgefield for the Ridgefield Volunteer Fire Department; He also is a career firefighter with the Bergenfield Fire Department. He served in the United States Air Force and is an Operation Freedom veteran from the Iraq War.

In Bergenfield all the school kids know him as Firefighter Marlon. He instructs all children from Pre-K through First Grade in the Learn Not to Burn program and directs the annual fire prevention poster contest held throughout the schools.

On December 17th 2009 a fundraiser will be held to raise money for Marlon and his family to get back on their feet in time for the holidays. Please support an individual that risks his life to save others.

DATE: Thursday, December 17th

PLACE: Tommy Fox's 32 S. Washington Ave. Bergenfield, NJ 07621

TIME: 7pm until last call!!!!

There will be Food, Music and Fun!

The suggested donation to get in will be $20 at the door.

ALL the money collected will go to the Sahai family.

Please spread the word and help out during their time of need
